Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally notify you of my intentions regarding the illustration rights for [Title of the Work/Project]. As we have previously discussed, I am interested in securing the illustration rights to ensure that [explain the purpose, e.g., the integrity, creativity, etc.].

Please let me know if there are any specific requirements or contractual details you would like to address. I believe that collaborating on this matter will greatly benefit both parties and lead to a successful outcome for [mention the project or work].

Thank you for considering my intentions. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
