

Supplier Relationship Renewal Inquiry

Dear [Supplier's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. As we approach the renewal period of our current agreement, we wanted to reach out to discuss our ongoing partnership and explore the opportunities for renewal.

Over the past [duration of relationship], we have appreciated the quality of your products/services and the support you have provided. We believe that continuing our collaboration will be mutually beneficial, and we are keen to understand your terms and any possible adjustments for the upcoming contract.

Please let us know a convenient time for you to discuss this further. We are looking forward to your feedback and are excited about the possibility of continuing our successful partnership.

Thank you for your attention, and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,
