

Dear [Friend's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I've been doing a lot of thinking about our friendship and the misunderstandings we've had lately.

First and foremost, I want to sincerely apologize for my part in what happened. It was never my intention to hurt you or make you feel unappreciated. Our friendship means the world to me, and losing it has made me realize just how much I value our connection.

I miss the laughter and the moments we've shared, and I would love the chance to talk things over. I believe that we can work through this together, and come out stronger on the other side.

Please let me know if you're open to meeting up or having a chat. I genuinely want to hear your thoughts and feelings.

Thank you for considering this. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
