

Dear [Friend's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. As my wedding day approaches, I have been thinking about the special people I want by my side. It's with great joy that I would like to ask you to be my bridesmaid!

You have always been such an important part of my life, and I can't imagine celebrating this milestone without you. Your support and friendship mean the world to me, and I would love to have you standing beside me on my special day.

Please let me know if you would be willing to accept this honor. I can't wait to create beautiful memories together during this exciting time!

With all my love,

[Your Name]
