

Dear [Coworker's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to you with a special request that has been on my mind for some time now. As you may know, I am getting married on [Wedding Date], and I would be honored if you would be one of my bridesmaids.

Your support and friendship mean the world to me, and I can't imagine celebrating this special day without you by my side. The role of a bridesmaid is not just about participation, but also about sharing in the joy and the memories of the day. I believe you would bring so much positivity and warmth to our celebration.

I understand that this commitment comes with responsibilities, and I truly appreciate the time and effort that being a bridesmaid entails. We will have fun planning together, and I promise to make this a memorable experience for all of us.

Thank you for considering my request. I would love to hear your thoughts!

Warm regards,

[Your Name]
