

Dear [Sister's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well! I have some exciting news to share with you--I am getting married!

As I start planning for this special day, I can't imagine celebrating it without you by my side. I would be honored if you would be my bridesmaid.

Your support and love mean the world to me, and I would love to have you help me make this day unforgettable.

Please let me know what you think. I can't wait to hear from you!

With all my love,

[Your Name]
