Dear [Companion's Name],

I hope this message finds you well! I've been thinking about our next adventure together and I'm really excited about the possibilities.

How about we consider [Destination] for our next trip? I've heard amazing things and it seems like the perfect place for us to explore. We could start planning for the weekend of [Proposed Dates].

Here's a rough itinerary I thought we could discuss:

Let me know what you think! I'm sure it will be an unforgettable experience.

Looking forward to hearing your thoughts!

Best,
