

Hey [Friend's Name],

I hope this message finds you well! I'm planning a camping trip to [Location] from [Start Date] to [End Date], and I would love for you to join me.

It'll be a great opportunity to unwind, enjoy nature, and catch up. We can hike, fish, and share stories around the campfire.

Please let me know if you're interested, and feel free to bring any gear you might have!

Looking forward to hearing from you soon!

Best,
[Your Name]
