Dear Members of the Admissions Committee,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal the decision regarding my application to the [Specific Graduate Program] for the [Year] academic year.

I appreciate the time and effort that you dedicate to reviewing applications. However, I was disappointed to learn that my application was not accepted. I would like to take this opportunity to provide additional context to my application and address some concerns that may have influenced the decision.

[Insert specific reasons for appeal - additional achievements, personal circumstances, or relevant updates that strengthen your application.]

I remain extremely passionate about the opportunity to contribute to [University Name] and to engage with the esteemed faculty and students in the [Specific Graduate Program]. I believe my background and experiences align well with the program's objectives and values.

Thank you for considering my appeal. I sincerely hope to be given another opportunity to join your esteemed program. I look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
