To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to apply for a student dormitory accommodation for the upcoming academic year as a graduate student at [University/College Name].

As a [Your Program] student, I am excited to take part in the learning and growth opportunities that your institution provides. I believe that residing in the student dormitory will greatly enhance my academic experience and allow me to immerse myself in the campus community.

My academic journey has led me to pursue a graduate degree in [Your Field of Study], which I believe aligns with my career goals and aspirations. I value a supportive and collaborative environment, and I am eager to engage with fellow students.

I would like to request a single/double room in [Preferred Dormitory Name, if any], if available. I am committed to adhering to the dormitory policies and contributing positively to the living environment.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to reside in the dormitory and contribute to the vibrant community at [University/College Name].

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
