Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is [Your Name], and I am [Your Position] at [Your Organization]. We are dedicated to [briefly describe your organization's mission and goals]. We have been following the impactful work your organization is doing in the community and believe that together, we can create meaningful change.

As we navigate increasingly complex social issues, the need for collaboration among nonprofits has never been more critical. We propose forming a coalition of nonprofits that share our vision for [specific area of focus]. By combining our resources, expertise, and networks, we can amplify our impact and reach a broader audience.

We would like to invite you to discuss the potential of collaborating on this initiative. We envision a preliminary meeting where we can share our ideas, identify common goals, and explore how we can work together effectively. Could we schedule a time to meet in the coming weeks? Your insights and leadership in this coalition would be invaluable.

Thank you for considering this opportunity for collaboration. We look forward to your positive response.

Warm regards,

[Your Name]
