

Letter of Solidarity

Dear Team,

In this difficult time, we extend our heartfelt condolences to each member of our unit who is mourning the loss of our dear colleague, [Name]. Their presence brought joy and dedication to our team, and their absence will be deeply felt by all.

We understand that this is a challenging moment, and it is important for us to come together as a supportive community. Please know that we are here for you and that it is okay to grieve and seek comfort from one another.

Let us honor [Name]'s memory by cherishing the moments we shared and continuing to support one another as we navigate through our loss.

With deepest sympathy,
