

Dear [Book Club Member's Name],

It is with a heavy heart that I write to you during this difficult time. The news of [Loved One's Name]'s passing has deeply saddened all of us in the book club. We know how much they meant to you and how their spirit enriched our discussions.

Your love for [Loved One's Name] was clear in every story you shared, and their passion for reading truly inspired us all. We will forever cherish the memories of our gatherings that included heartfelt conversations about our favorite books and the wisdom that [Loved One's Name] imparted.

Please know that we are here for you. If you need someone to talk to or share stories with, do not hesitate to reach out. We are holding you close in our thoughts and prayers during this time of mourning.

With deepest sympathy,

[Your Name]
