

Dear Valued Volunteers,

I hope this message finds you in good spirits, despite the challenges we are currently facing. I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering commitment and dedication to our community.

During these difficult times, it is essential to lean on each other and provide support where we can. I understand that many of you may be feeling overwhelmed or uncertain about the future. Please know that you are not alone--our church family is here to walk alongside you.

Your efforts in serving our community have not gone unnoticed. The compassion and love you demonstrate are a true reflection of our faith, and I am continually inspired by your selflessness. Remember that it is okay to take a step back when needed and prioritize your well-being.

If you need assistance or someone to talk to, please do not hesitate to reach out. Our church is a safe haven, and we are committed to supporting each other through prayer and action. We will continue to adapt and find ways to serve while also taking care of ourselves and each other.

Thank you for being such an integral part of our church community. Together, we will navigate these challenges and emerge stronger in our faith and fellowship.

May God bless you and keep you safe.

Sincerely,
