

Dear [Sibling's Name],

It is with a heavy heart that I write this letter to you. The departure of [Deceased's Name] has left a void that is hard to express in words. I want you to know that I am here for you during this incredibly difficult time.

As we navigate this painful journey together, I hope you find comfort in the beautiful memories we shared with [Deceased's Name]. Their laughter, kindness, and love will always be cherished in our hearts.

Remember, it's okay to grieve and to feel the weight of this loss. I am just a phone call away, whether you need to talk, cry, or simply sit in silence together.

Take all the time you need, and lean on me whenever you feel overwhelmed. We are stronger together, and I will walk this path with you.

With all my love and deepest condolences,

[Your Name]
