

Expired Listing Update

Dear [Client's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. We are reaching out to inform you that your property located at [Property Address] has recently expired from our listing. While the market has been dynamic, we understand that this can be disappointing.

To ensure you have the best opportunities moving forward, we would like to discuss the next steps. Here are some suggestions:

- Review the pricing strategy
- Enhance marketing efforts
- Make necessary property updates

Please let us know a convenient time for you to discuss your options. We are committed to helping you achieve your real estate goals.

Thank you for your understanding, and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,
