To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally apply for agricultural tax relief as a small farmer. My name is [Your Name], and I operate a small farm located at [Farm Address]. I have been engaged in farming activities for [number of years] years and primarily produce [list primary products].

Due to [briefly mention any financial difficulties, climate issues, or other pertinent challenges], I am seeking assistance to enable me to sustain my farming operations. The requested tax relief will significantly contribute to the financial viability of my farm and help promote sustainable agricultural practices.

Attached to this letter, you will find the necessary documentation supporting my application, including:

- Proof of income from farming
- Tax returns for the last [number of years] years
- Business plans or financial statements

I kindly request that my application be reviewed at your earliest convenience. I appreciate your consideration and look forward to your positive response.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
