Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to discuss the deferred tax liability related to our recent financial assessments. After reviewing our financial statements, we believe there is an opportunity for negotiation that could be mutually beneficial.

As you may know, our company has experienced [briefly explain circumstances], which has significantly impacted our cash flow and financial planning. We propose discussing a potential re-evaluation of the terms surrounding the deferred tax liability.

We would appreciate the opportunity to schedule a meeting to explore this matter further. Please let us know your available dates and times for this discussion.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We look forward to your prompt response and a fruitful negotiation.

Sincerely,
