Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to propose a revision of our current income tax structure by introducing new income tax tiers. This approach aims to promote fairness and equity within our tax system while also addressing the growing income disparity.

Proposed Tax Tiers

- Income up to $30,000: 10%
- Income from $30,001 to $75,000: 15%
- Income from $75,001 to $150,000: 20%
- Income over $150,000: 25%

This tiered system not only simplifies the tax brackets but also ensures that higher earners contribute a fairer share towards public services and infrastructure.

Anticipated Benefits

1. Reduction of income inequality.
2. Increased tax revenue for public welfare programs.
3. Encouragement of economic growth by maintaining disposable income for lower earners.

I appreciate your attention to this vital matter and look forward to discussing this proposal further. Please feel free to contact me at [Your Email] or [Your Phone Number].

Thank you for considering this proposal.

Sincerely,
