Dear Financial Aid Officer,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal my financial aid package for the academic year [Year]. After reviewing my award letter, I have found that my financial needs have not been fully met.

Due to [briefly explain your situation, e.g., unforeseen medical expenses, loss of employment, family circumstances], my financial situation has changed significantly since I submitted my original application. This has put a strain on my ability to cover essential tuition and living expenses.

I am requesting a reevaluation of my financial aid package to better reflect my current financial needs. I have attached documentation that supports my case, including [list any supporting documents, such as pay stubs, medical bills, or letters from employers].

Attending [School Name] is incredibly important to me, and I am eager to continue my education. Your support in this matter would greatly alleviate my financial burden and enable me to focus on my studies.

Thank you for considering my appeal. I appreciate your time and understanding, and I look forward to your favorable response.

Sincerely,
