

Dear Military Families,

I hope this letter finds you well. As we reflect on the invaluable contributions made by our military, we cannot overlook the sacrifices and support of their families.

Your strength and resilience serve as a foundation for our service members. The love and encouragement you provide are essential to their ability to serve our nation. We appreciate the challenges you face, often in silence, and the unwavering patriotism you demonstrate.

Thank you for your sacrifices, your understanding, and your commitment. We honor you and celebrate your role in enabling our troops to defend our freedoms.

With deepest respect and gratitude,
