Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to propose an exhibition dedicated to ceramic art, titled "[Exhibition Title]." This exhibition aims to showcase the versatility and beauty of ceramics through a curated selection of works from various artists.

The exhibition will take place at [Proposed Venue] from [Start Date] to [End Date]. We anticipate an audience consisting of art enthusiasts, collectors, and the general public, creating an excellent opportunity for community engagement and education about ceramic art.

We propose to feature about [Number of Artists] artists, each contributing pieces that explore different themes and techniques in ceramics. Additionally, we plan to hold workshops and artist talks, enhancing the visitor experience and fostering a deeper understanding of the art form.

Funding for the exhibition will be sought through [Funding Sources], and we would be grateful for your support in [Specific Support/Collaboration Needed]. We believe that your involvement would greatly enhance the exhibition's success.

Thank you for considering this proposal. I look forward to the possibility of collaborating with you on this exciting project. Please feel free to contact me at [Your Phone Number] or [Your Email Address] for further discussion.

Sincerely,
