Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to you on behalf of [Theater Name], where we are currently preparing to showcase our latest production, [Production Name], scheduled to open on [Opening Date]. As part of our efforts to enhance this production and ensure its success, we are reaching out to seek your support through our merchandise sales fundraising initiative.

In conjunction with our theater production, we plan to sell a variety of merchandise, including programs, posters, t-shirts, and other themed items that resonate with our show. The proceeds from these sales will go directly to offset the production costs and allow us to continue bringing quality theatrical experiences to our community.

We are seeking partnerships with local businesses and organizations who share our passion for the arts. By collaborating with us for this initiative, you will not only support the arts but will also receive marketing exposure through our promotional materials, social media platforms, and event announcements.

We would love the opportunity to discuss this partnership further and explore how we can work together. Please feel free to reach out to me directly at [Your Phone Number] or [Your Email Address] to set up a time to chat.

Thank you for considering our proposal. We greatly appreciate your support in helping us bring the magic of theater to life.

Warm regards,
