

Subject: Proposal for Discussion on Business Merger Options

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to suggest that we explore the possibilities of a business merger between [Your Company Name] and [Recipient's Company Name]. Given our shared interests and complementary strengths, I believe a merger could be mutually beneficial.

It would be valuable to discuss our options in detail and assess how we might collaborate more effectively. I propose that we schedule a meeting at your earliest convenience to explore this potential partnership further.

Please let me know your availability, and I look forward to the opportunity to discuss this exciting possibility with you.

Best regards,
