Dear [Recipient's Name],

We hope this letter finds you well. We are reaching out to propose the establishment of an arbitration agreement specifically designed to address any potential disputes arising from intellectual property matters between our parties.

Given the complexities and nuances involved in intellectual property issues, we believe that arbitration could offer a more efficient and cost-effective means of resolving disputes compared to traditional litigation. We propose the following terms for the arbitration agreement:

- Scope: All disputes related to intellectual property rights, including but not limited to patents, trademarks, and copyrights.
- Arbitration Body: [Insert Name of Arbitration Institution]
- Governing Law: [Insert Governing Law Jurisdiction]
- Arbitrator Selection: [Insert Method of Selecting Arbitrators]
- Confidentiality: All arbitration proceedings shall be kept confidential.
- Costs: [Insert Cost-Sharing Arrangements]

We believe that these provisions will foster a mutual understanding and provide a clear framework for dispute resolution. Please review this proposal at your earliest convenience, and we would be happy to discuss any modifications you might suggest.

Thank you for considering this proposal. We look forward to your favorable response.

Sincerely,
