

Divorce Intention Letter

Date: [Insert Date]

Dear [Recipient's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. We are writing to inform you of a significant change in our lives. After much consideration and reflection, we have decided to part ways and pursue a divorce.

This decision has not been made lightly, and we are committed to ensuring that this process is as respectful and amicable as possible. We value the relationships we have built with our friends and family and wish to maintain those connections.

We kindly ask for your understanding and support during this time. We appreciate your consideration of our privacy as we navigate this transition.

If you have any questions or would like to reach out, please feel free to contact us individually.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

[Your Name] and [Partner's Name]
