Dear [Spouse's Name],

I am writing to formally notify you of my decision to pursue a divorce. After much consideration, I believe that it is in our best interest to separate and move forward with our lives independently.

I hope that we can approach this process with mutual respect and understanding, and I am committed to ensuring that it is as amicable as possible.

Please feel free to reach out to me so we can discuss the next steps regarding our situation.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
