Dear [Applicant's Name],

Thank you for your application to rent the property located at [Property Address]. We appreciate your interest and the time you took to apply.

After careful consideration, we regret to inform you that we are unable to approve your rental application at this time. The decision was based on the references provided during the application process, which were found to be unsatisfactory.

We encourage you to take this feedback positively and consider reapplying in the future, should your circumstances change or if you are able to provide additional information or references.

Thank you once again for your interest. We wish you the best in your search for housing.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
