Dear [Property Owner/Manager's Name],

We hope this letter finds you well. As a valued member of our community, we want to ensure that our neighborhood remains a safe and welcoming environment for all residents and guests. With the increasing popularity of short-term rentals, it is important to establish clear community standards that promote respect and understanding.

Community Standards for Short-Term Rentals

1. Noise Control: Guests should adhere to quiet hours from [insert time] to [insert time].
2. Parking Regulations: Guests must park in designated areas and not block driveways or sidewalks.
3. Property Care: Rentals must be maintained in good condition and clean upon guest departure.
4. Local Communication: Provide guests with clear guidelines about neighborhood etiquette and local laws.
5. Respect Neighbors: Encourage guests to be considerate of neighbors and their property.

We appreciate your cooperation in upholding these standards to foster a positive community experience. If you have any questions or need further information, please do not hesitate to reach out to us.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
