Given the evolving nature of our business and market conditions, having the option for flexible payment terms would greatly assist us in managing our cash flow more effectively. We value our partnership with you and believe that adjusting payment terms could further strengthen our collaboration.

Could you please provide us with information regarding any available flexible payment options you may offer? We are particularly interested in discussing payment schedules, discounts for early payments, or any other arrangements that could be mutually beneficial.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to your prompt response.
