Dear [Lender's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally request a reconsideration of the interest rate applied to my loan account, [Loan Account Number].

As a valued customer, I appreciate the support provided by [Lender's Company]. However, I believe that my current interest rate does not reflect my creditworthiness and my commitment to timely payments. I have maintained a strong payment history and have made significant efforts to improve my financial situation.

I kindly ask you to review my account and consider adjusting the interest rate to a more favorable rate. This change would greatly assist me in managing my loan more effectively and ensuring continued timely payments.

Thank you for taking the time to consider my request. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
