Subject: Petition for Payment Forgiveness

Dear [Loan Servicer's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally request forgiveness for my student loan payments due to [briefly explain your hardship or situation e.g., financial difficulties, medical issues, etc.].

My loan account number is [Your Loan Account Number], and I have been committed to repaying my loans; however, circumstances have made it increasingly challenging to meet these obligations. [Provide a brief history of your financial situation and any relevant details that support your petition].

In light of my current situation, I kindly request that you consider forgiving some or all of my remaining loan payments. This gesture would significantly alleviate my financial burden and enable me to pursue [mention any future plans related to your education or career].

Thank you for considering my request. I appreciate your understanding and support during this difficult time. Please feel free to contact me at [Your Phone Number] or [Your Email Address] should you require any further documentation or information.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
