Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to propose the formation of a cross-sector alliance between [Your Organization] and [Recipient's Organization]. Given our mutual goals of [state common goals or missions], I believe that collaboration could lead to significant advancements in our respective areas.

Our organizations share a commitment to [briefly outline shared values or objectives]. By combining our resources and expertise, we can [describe potential benefits of the alliance, e.g., enhance community impact, drive innovation, etc.].

I would like to suggest a meeting to explore this opportunity further and discuss how we can align our efforts for greater impact. Please let me know your availability for a conversation over the next few weeks.

Thank you for considering this proposal. I look forward to the possibility of working together and building a lasting partnership.

Warm regards,
