

Dear Valued Investor,

We hope this message finds you well. We are writing to inform you about an important development regarding our company's structure that will enhance our operational efficiency and strategic growth.

As part of our ongoing commitment to maximizing shareholder value, we have decided to implement a corporate reorganization. This reorganization aims to streamline our operations and better align our resources with our business objectives.

The key changes will include:

- Realignment of business units to foster greater collaboration.
- Reduction of overlapping functions to increase operational efficiency.
- Investment in new technology to enhance productivity.

We believe these changes will position our company for future success and generate long-term benefits for our investors. The reorganization process is expected to be completed by [insert date], and we will keep you updated on our progress.

We appreciate your continued support and confidence in our company. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to our investor relations team at [insert contact information].

Thank you for your understanding and support.

Sincerely,
