Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to seek clarification regarding the voting privileges that shareholders hold in [Company Name]. As a concerned shareholder, I want to ensure that I fully understand the rights and responsibilities associated with my investment.

Specifically, I would appreciate further information on the following points:

- The criteria for shareholder voting eligibility.
- Details on the voting process and how votes are cast.
- Any significant changes to voting privileges in recent years.
- The impact of shareholder class distinctions on voting rights.

I believe that transparency in these matters is crucial for maintaining trust and engagement among shareholders. I would greatly appreciate a prompt response to my inquiries.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
