

Dear Shareholders,

As our company continues to grow and evolve, we want to ensure that all stakeholders uphold our core values and adhere to ethical standards. Below, we outline the ethical guidelines that we expect all shareholders to follow:

1. Integrity and Honesty

All shareholders should act with integrity and honesty in all dealings related to the company's affairs.

2. Respect Confidentiality

Protect the confidentiality of non-public information and do not disclose it to outside parties.

3. Avoid Conflicts of Interest

Avoid situations where personal interests might conflict with the interests of the company.

4. Fairness

Treat all shareholders and employees fairly and with respect, ensuring equal opportunity for all.

5. Compliance with Laws

Adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, and corporate policies in conducting company affairs.

We appreciate your commitment to maintaining these ethical guidelines as we strive to foster a responsible and transparent corporate environment.

Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,
