

Dear Valued Shareholders,

We hope this message finds you well. We are writing to you today to express our sincerest apologies for the recent inconvenience caused by the de-listing of our stock from the exchange.

We acknowledge that this unexpected situation may have caused concern amongst our shareholders and we want to assure you that it was not a decision taken lightly. Our team is working diligently to address the issues that led to this outcome and to explore potential pathways for relisting in the near future.

Your trust and support are invaluable to us, and we deeply regret any distress this situation may have caused. We are committed to keeping you informed about our progress and any significant developments as they arise.

Thank you for your understanding and continued support during this challenging time. Please feel free to reach out to our investor relations team with any questions or concerns.

Warm regards,
