

Update on Shareholder Rights Following Stock De-Listing

Date: [Insert Date]

Dear Shareholders,

We hope this message finds you well. As you are aware, our company's stock was recently de-listed from [Insert Exchange Name]. We understand that this news may raise concerns regarding your rights as shareholders. We want to assure you that your rights remain protected, and we are committed to keeping you informed.

What the De-Listing Means for You

The de-listing of our stock does not affect your ownership of shares. As a shareholder, you still retain the following rights:

- Voting Rights: You maintain your right to vote on corporate matters.
- Dividends: Any future dividends declared will still be distributed, subject to board approval.
- Access to Information: You will continue to receive regular updates and financial reports.

Next Steps

We will be convening a shareholder meeting on [Insert Date] to discuss the implications of the de-listing in further detail. Your feedback is important to us, and we encourage your participation.

Contact Information

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out to our investor relations team at [Insert Contact Information].

Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

[Your Title]

[Company Name]