To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally complain about inaccuracies found in my credit report issued by [Name of Credit Reporting Agency]. My credit report, which I reviewed on [Insert Date], contains several misleading details that I believe are affecting my credit score and overall financial standing.

Specifically, I have noticed the following discrepancies:

- [Describe the first misleading detail]
- [Describe the second misleading detail]
- [Describe any additional details]

These inaccuracies have caused significant concern for me as they do not reflect my actual credit history. I kindly request that you investigate these issues promptly and provide me with an updated credit report that accurately reflects my financial situation.

Attached are copies of documents that support my claims. I would appreciate a response within 30 days to address these discrepancies.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
