Subject: Dispute of Bill Concerning Plan Misrepresentation

Dear [Customer Service Team/Specific Name],

I am writing to formally dispute my recent bill dated [Insert Bill Date], which I believe contains charges that are a result of misrepresentation regarding my telecommunication plan.

When I signed up on [Insert Signup Date], I was informed by your representative that my plan would include [specific details of plan], and that the monthly fee would be [the amount]. However, my current bill reflects charges for [specific details that differ], which were not disclosed to me during the enrollment process.

As a loyal customer, I find this discrepancy concerning and would appreciate it if you could review my account and provide clarification regarding these charges. I request that you adjust my bill accordingly and prevent such misrepresentations in the future.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. I look forward to your swift response.

Sincerely,
