Dear [Lender's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to inform you about a recent family emergency that has impacted my financial situation, resulting in a delay in my mortgage payment for the month of [Insert Month].

Due to [briefly explain the family emergency, e.g., "a medical emergency involving a close family member"], I have incurred unexpected expenses, which have temporarily affected my ability to make my mortgage payment on time.

I sincerely apologize for this situation and request your understanding and assistance during this difficult time. I intend to make my payment as soon as possible, and am hopeful to have the necessary funds by [insert date you anticipate being able to pay].

If there are any late fees or penalties associated with this delay, I kindly ask if they could be waived considering the circumstances.

Thank you for your understanding and support. Please let me know if there are any forms or additional information you require from me.

Sincerely,
