To Whom It May Concern,

I hope this message finds you well. My name is [Your Name], and I am writing to inquire about the opportunities for participation in your physical rehabilitation program.

After researching various rehabilitation options, I am particularly impressed by your facility's approach to patient care and the success stories from your past participants. I am keen to learn more about the programs you offer, the eligibility criteria, and the process for enrollment.

I would appreciate any information you could provide regarding upcoming sessions, assessments, and costs associated with the program. Additionally, I would be grateful for any insights into the types of rehabilitation services you specialize in.

Thank you for your time and assistance. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
