Dear [Recipient's Name],

Subject: Enforcement of Arbitration Clause in Real Estate Agreement

We are writing to formally address the enforcement of the arbitration clause contained in the real estate agreement dated [Insert Date of Agreement], related to the property located at [Property Address]. According to Section [Insert Section Number] of the agreement, both parties agreed to resolve any disputes arising from this agreement through binding arbitration.

As you are aware, a dispute has arisen concerning [Briefly Describe the Dispute], which we believe falls under the scope of the arbitration clause. We are committed to resolving this matter in accordance with the agreed-upon terms.

To initiate the arbitration process, we propose the following steps:

1. Select an arbitrator mutually acceptable to both parties.
2. Determine a timeline for the arbitration proceedings.
3. Prepare and submit relevant documentation to the arbitrator.

We request your prompt response to this letter by [Insert Response Deadline] to facilitate the timely resolution of this dispute.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We look forward to your cooperation.

Sincerely,
