Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally submit a claim for punitive damages following the unfortunate aviation accident that occurred on [date of accident], involving [brief details of the incident]. The event has caused significant hardship and distress to myself and [mention any affected parties], and I believe that this claim is justified based on the gross negligence exhibited by [mention responsible party].

As a result of this incident, I and others have experienced [list damages such as physical injury, emotional distress, loss of income, etc.]. Under [relevant laws or statutes], I am entitled to seek punitive damages due to the recklessness and disregard for safety protocols demonstrated by [responsible party or company].

Included with this letter are the supporting documents that detail the extent of damages incurred, as well as evidence of the recklessness involved in the accident.

I expect a prompt response to this claim and am hopeful for an amicable resolution. If I do not receive a satisfactory response by [response deadline], I will consider pursuing further legal action.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to your swift reply.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
