Dear [Franchisor's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally notify you of my intention to terminate the Franchise Agreement dated [Franchise Agreement Date] between [Your Franchise Name] and [Franchisor's Name], effective immediately.

Due to ongoing financial distress, it has become increasingly difficult for me to operate the franchise. Despite my best efforts to improve the situation, I regret to inform you that the circumstances have led me to this unfortunate decision.

I will ensure that all franchise-related obligations are addressed in accordance with the terms outlined in the Franchise Agreement. I appreciate the support provided throughout our partnership and hope for a smooth transition during this process.

If you require any further information or documentation from my side, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,
