

Salary Negotiation Response

Dear [Manager's Name],

Thank you for discussing the recent promotion opportunity with me. I am excited about the potential to take on new responsibilities and contribute further to the team.

After considering the scope of the new role and the current market standards for similar positions, I believe that a salary of [Proposed Salary] would be more in line with my skills and experience, as well as the value I bring to the team.

I appreciate the offer made and I am confident that we can come to an agreement that reflects both the demands of the position and my capabilities. I look forward to your thoughts on this matter.

Thank you once again for this opportunity.

Sincerely,
