Dear [Admissions Officer/Committee Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally request re-admission to [College/University Name] for the upcoming [semester/year] after my previous withdrawal due to mental health challenges.

Over the past [duration], I have been actively working on addressing my mental health issues through therapy and support groups. This journey has been incredibly transformative, allowing me to develop effective coping strategies and regain my sense of self.

I am committed to my academic success and have a clear plan in place to maintain my mental health while pursuing my studies, which includes [briefly outline your strategies, e.g., seeking counseling services, joining student support networks, attending workshops, etc.].

I deeply value the education I was receiving at [College/University Name] and am eager to continue my academic journey with renewed focus and dedication. I kindly ask for your understanding in considering my application for re-admission.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute positively to the campus community once again.
