Dear Admissions Committee,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to follow up on my application for re-admission to [College/University Name]. I appreciate the time and consideration that went into reviewing my application, and I understand the competitive nature of the admissions process.

Since my initial rejection, I have taken substantial steps to address the concerns outlined in your feedback. [Briefly describe any relevant actions taken, such as improving grades, gaining work experience, etc.]. I believe these improvements showcase my commitment to academic and personal growth.

I am very passionate about continuing my education at [College/University Name] and am eager to contribute positively to the campus community. I would appreciate any further guidance or insight on how I might strengthen my application moving forward.

Thank you for considering my appeal for re-admission. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
