Dear Members of the Admissions Committee,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal the decision regarding my eligibility for the Honors Program at [Institution's Name]. I appreciate the work that the committee does to maintain high standards and acknowledge the criteria that were established for program admission.

Unfortunately, my application did not meet the specified requirements due to [briefly explain your situation, such as grades, circumstances, etc.]. However, I believe that my [mention strengths, achievements, or improvements] demonstrate my commitment and capability to thrive in this challenging program.

I have worked diligently to enhance my academic performance, and I am confident that I can contribute positively to the Honors Program and the wider academic community. [Add any additional points that support your appeal, such as relevant experiences or future plans].

Thank you for considering my appeal. I would be grateful for the opportunity to discuss my application further. I am looking forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
