Dear Admissions Committee,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal the decision regarding my application to the Dual Degree Program in [Specific Program Name] at [University Name]. I understand that the selection process is rigorous, but I would like to provide additional information for your consideration.

[Briefly explain your qualifications, experiences, and why you believe you are a strong candidate for the program. Highlight any new accomplishments or updates since your original application that were not included.]

I am passionate about pursuing [insert specific goals or interests related to the dual degree] and believe that this program is the perfect fit for my academic and career aspirations. I am committed to contributing positively to the [University's] community and making the most of this unique opportunity.

I kindly ask for your reconsideration of my application and hope that you will take my additional information into account. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
